

<http://drjobs.co/job/internal-medicine-physician-executive-and-international-health/>

Internal Medicine Physician-Executive and International Health

Description

Internal Medicine Physician-Executive and International Health

The Division of General Internal Medicine, located within the Department of Internal Medicine at Mayo Clinic in Arizona, is currently seeking an Internist for an appointment in our Executive, Development and International Section. This section encompasses the Executive Health Program.

Board certification in Internal Medicine is required. Practice and leadership experience within an outpatient Internal Medicine practice is essential, and experience in an executive health, international medicine or concierge medicine program is highly desirable. Additional certifications within preventive medicine are desirable as well. The selected candidate will demonstrate exceptional communication skills and maturity needed to care for our episodic (“non-primary care”) patient population. Interests in advancing the science and practice of medicine within the division and the institution through research, education and innovative care models are added qualifications that will receive priority.

This position includes an academic appointment in the Mayo Clinic College of Medicine and provides opportunities to educate medical students in the Mayo Clinic School of Medicine, Arizona Campus.

Responsibilities

- Doctor of medicine degree from an accredited school of medicine
- Current license to practice medicine in the United States
- Board Certification or eligible for board certification
- IMS is a tobacco-free workplace.

IMS is an equal employment opportunity employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, disability status, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, protected veteran status or any other characteristic protected by law. Reasonable accommodations may be made to enable individuals with disabilities to perform essential functions.

Joining Integrated Medical Services is more than saying “yes” to making the world a healthier place. It’s discovering a career that’s challenging, supportive and inspiring. Where a culture driven by excellence helps you not only meet your goals, but also create new ones. We focus on creating a diverse and inclusive culture, encouraging individual expression in the workplace and thrive on the innovative ideas this generates. Our hope is that each day you’ll uncover a new reason to love what you do. If this sounds like the workplace for you, apply now

Qualifications

Hiring organization

Mayo Clinic

Employment Type

Full-time, Part-time, Contractor

Industry

HealthCare

Job Location

USA

Base Salary

$ 140k - $ 300k

Date posted

October 27, 2021

License or certification Qualified candidates should be board-certified/board-eligible in internal medicine with a desire for scholarly activity. Preference will be given to those candidates with additional year(s) of training in advanced General Internal Medicine (Chief Residency or fellowship) or internal medicine practice experience. Research training through fellowship or a Master's Degree program is desirable, but not a prerequisite for application

Job Benefits

Site description Mayo Clinic's campuses in Arizona are located in Phoenix and Scottsdale, in the beautiful Sonoran Desert. The region is known as the Valley of the Sun, a metropolitan area with more than 4 million residents in 25 cities and towns. With Phoenix being the sixth largest city in the nation, this sunny "desert metropolis" offers the amenities of a big city in the midst of a strikingly beautiful, rugged, southwest landscape. Scottsdale frequently earns praise as a highly desirable place to live. The city's more than 200,000 residents enjoy a vibrant mix of culinary hot spots, arts and entertainment, professional and collegiate sports teams, and community resources. The region's desert climate promotes an outdoor lifestyle with a full complement of sports and recreation.